Rabbi's Message

This year is the 50th anniversary of the Six Day War and June 7 was the 50th anniversary of the reunification of the city of Jerusalem. That day, 50 years ago, marked the first time in 1,832 years that Jews ruled over the territory of the Old City. The last time had been in 135 CE, when the Bar Kochba Rebellion was ended by the Romans, who expelled the Jews from Judea and renamed the land of the Jews, "Palestina," after the historical enemy of the Jews, the Philistines, in order to spite the Jews.

This month, we mark 50 years of Jewish sovereignty over the holiest of places for the Jewish people, 50 years of control over the territories of Judea and Samaria or the West Bank (the terminology that one uses to refer to the areas in question is politically loaded), 50 years of governing territories that many nations want Israel to give up, 50 years of Jewish control over territories believed to have been promised to the Jewish people by God in the Torah, 50 years of control of the Old City, Mt. Zion, the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, and of Hebron, the burial place of the Patriarchs and Matriarchs which Jews mention in prayer multiple times a day.

This month, we mark 50 years of a different sort of conflict between the Jews and Arabs. For many reasons, today, a final status agreement addressing all of the concerns that currently divide the sides is not likely in the offing. But the current political climate leads to optimism that other types of agreements that improve the situation for both Israel and the Palestinians are more likely to achieve today than they have been, perhaps at any point since the conflict began. Most importantly, Israel's relationships with its Sunni Muslim neighbors is relatively good with cooperation occurring in a number of ways even without formalized agreements. Israel today is an essential strategic and economic partner for its Sunni neighbors, prosperous and strong.

So as we mark the 50th anniversary of the Six Day War, even though significant challenges remain, there is room for optimism for the future.

President's Comments

I am often asked about my role as Temple president — why I volunteered, what has my experience been like, etc. What I always come back to when thinking about these questions is that this has truly been the privilege of a lifetime. To know that you, our congregants, have trusted me — a Des Moines transplant — with the responsibility of a congregation that is over a century old, a building that is almost 90 years old and traditions that date back to the beginning of time, has been awesome. I sincerely mean that!

I hope that your trust in me has given you a feeling of security. Decisions made throughout my tenure have always been with the very best of intentions, Our finances are stable, Our renovation is complete. Our rabbi has a contract. Our staff can successfully run this institution with very direction. Our communications have been rebranded. Our relationship with organizations that lease space are solid.

There is work left undone. Our new chapel is not yet finished, but the design is complete. Our bathrooms and hallway upstairs have not been touched. It is my hope that we find the funds to finish them in the near future. This progress reminds me of the teachings of Pirke Avot — “It is not your responsibility to finish the work of perfecting the world, but you are not free to desist from it either.” We are all responsible for continuing the work to secure the future of our beloved Temple. Every bit helps!

I would be remiss not to thank my Board of Trustees. These volunteers are the heart and soul of this sacred community. I tear up at every worship service when I hear the music of our very talented musicians. I get goose bumps when I join in worship in our beautiful sanctuary with folks I have known for more than 20 years. I will miss my coffee meetings with the Rabbi and thank him for agreeing to make changes that are not always easy.

Thank you for trusting in me to make the best decision on behalf of Temple B'nai Jeshurun these past two years. I assure you I am leaving you in the more than capable hands of Alan Adato. I hope you will be as gracious to him as you have been to me these past two years.

B'Shalom, Judy Shkolnick

Executive Director's Message

Working for the Temple is a great joy because it feels as if you are a part of a big family. Though one thing that can happen in a family is that you forget to say thank you for all your family does for you, and I want to make sure I take some time in this article to say thank you to several members of our Temple family.

First, I want to thank Shana Price for helping while Erin Plank was on maternity leave. Shana had to fill in while we prepared for one of the biggest events of year. This year's Community Seder was the highest attended in years. Coordinating this event was no easy task and I want to again thank Shana for her work preparing for this event and working hard to make sure we are prepared for next year's Community Seder.

If you stop by the Temple office in June, there will be a good chance you will see Erin and her baby girl Fiona Grace. Again I am thankful for the time Shana has spent with us, however I hope I speak for everyone when I say I am excited to see Erin return and maybe hold baby Fiona from time to time.

Next, I want to thank all of you who sent in a memorial in memory of Jake's grandfather and mother who passed away last March. I know that Jake was overwhelmed by your generosity. I also want to inform you that after some soul searching Jake has asked to go back to working part time for the Temple. Again I hope that I speaking for everyone when I say that we value Jake's time here at the Temple and hope that he will continue to be a part of our Temple family for many years to come.

Lastly, I want to take some time to thank Judy Shkolnick for her tenure as President of Temple B'nai Jeshurun. I have enjoyed every President I have had the chance to work with these past 5 years, but I can tell you that Judy would constantly challenge me in a positive way to be a better man and Executive Director for the Temple. I will not be able to thank her enough for the support and encouragement she has given me these last few years. I also want to thank Alan Adato for agreeing to take on the mantle of Temple president. It's often a thankless job, but I know that Alan will do a great job.

Hopefully, I will see many of you at our Annual Meeting on June 11th starting at 1:00 pm as we swear in our new Temple President and Board of Trustees. It's a chance for us to come together as a family and be thankful for our great community.

Shalom, David Muenchrath

Did you hear about Sisterhood?

“If you are not a better person tomorrow than you are today, what need have you for a tomorrow.”

- Rabbe Nachman of Breslov.

A special thank you to all Sisters who have given of their time and talents, whether serving as officers, members, leading discussions, or attending special events. This past year your Sisterhood Board has tried to make our scattered lives into a more companionable and connected community. Our regular meeting attendance is about six, with many good ideas explored and planned. We have offered the Temple community the opportunity to enjoy and participate in the following activities:

- The Book Club has enjoyed sharing discussion on four books: Rashi’s Daughter, Yiddush Policemans Union, Gods Ear and Tales of Love and Darkness Our new book is The Sunflower. Attendance has been growing with ten to fifteen each meeting.
- Game Night (third Friday evening of each month averages fifteen players, with about thirty people staying to share a Shabbat meal.
- Our beautiful Havdalah and Rosh Chodesh celebration in January was attended by approximately thirty. We made no-sew blankets

- that we donated to the Ronald McDonald House.
- We had a fun time at Matzah Balls and Martini with Brotherhood.
- The Breakfast Club and WEDO lunch have been a great time to enjoy each other with pleasant company and good food.

We have chosen a project (making plastic mats for the homeless) that will probably span the entire coming year. We hope participation will build, and we can make a meaningful contribution toward improving lives.

The coming year we hope to offer all members and friends more chances to come together on a regular basis. We are looking for ideas and opportunities for “tikkun olam”, remembering that supporting each other, as well as improving our society and world, is part of our mission and mitzvah.

Please join us officially, if you can, to help support our programs and add your talents (whether ideas, time or money) to our Temple Sisterhood.

With love and sisterhood,
Wendy, Nancy and Jody
